BACKTRACKING WE first saw Campbell in 1947, following attendance at San Jose State after Naval service during WW II. Came to work as a printer for then-publisher Eugene Barnes in the Fall of 1948 and bought a partnership as of Jan. 1, 1949. Campbell was a town of some 3,500, centered around Campbell Ave., with a few stores on Winchester. But the people were great and we enjoyed serving them.

We worked in various capacities in keeping the Press afloat, while first Lester Laferty and then George Vierhus assumed the "senior partner" roles. Many strenuous days and nights each week were spent putting the paper to bed and caring for the printing customers.

We joined the people of Campbell when the City developed as an independent entity following incorporation in 1952. The way the City has blossomed since those days provides us with a well-rewarded feeling.

THE ORCHARDS WERE beautiful. One could stand at the corner of Blossom Hill Road and Union Ave. in the Spring and see nothing but blossoms except for the Hunt Cannery's water tower standing as a landmark.

IN 1954 WE BUILT OUR home in an orchard near Leigh Ave. and Dry Creek Road. So did thousands of others. Shortly there were few orchards left.

BUT THE PEOPLE OF Campbell are still great. It has been our pleasure to remain associated with many of the community's key people through continued membership in the Campbell Rotary Club for more than 20 years. We've edited the Club's Bulletin for nearly 15 years, a demanding but rewarding job. Rotary, along with Kiwanis, Lions, Optimist and other service groups, has contributed much to the liveability of this community.

They've put up street signs, built a ball park, aided Eastfield, helped in park construction, provided many young people with scholarships, etc. Right now the Rotary Club is involved in helping the Campbell Fire Dept. send a used fire truck to Madero, Mexico.

WAITING FOR A SIGNAL at Hamilton and Winchester on a hot day is an appalling experience--the smog and fumes are so strong they are almost unbreatheable. Something MUST be done to provide good, usable public transportation in the area and remove autos from the roads.

THE CAMPBELL FIRE Dept. hosted both Rotary and Kiwanis recently in their new Sunnyoaks facility. The firemen catered and served luncheon, put on a demonstration, and conducted a tour. If you haven't seen this station, you should. It should make you feel more secure, too--the Campbell Fire Dept. beat out all comers a few years ago and emerged NO. 1 NATIONALLY for fire prevention and

Proposal for Amato property will be heard by planners

Campbell Planning Commission will hear an application of Durastyle Homes for a zone change from R-1 to P-D at their meeting next Monday night.

The change involves property on the north side of Campbell Avenue west and adjacent to the San Tomas Expressway, formerly known as the Amato property.

The new zoning, if approved, will sanction a plan to build single and two story multiple residences with common greens on the 31 acre parcel. The density rate for the plan is 7.4 persons per acre.

Also on the agenda for the meeting are architectural approvals for Vito Agresti, continued from the last meeting and another for Frank Dorsa for approval of a carwash at 981 E. Hamilton Ave.

A continued public hearing on Bryce Nighswonger's application for a variance to construct a carport at 726 Ginden Drive is also scheduled.

Alan Sims has applied for a P-D approval to convert an existing residence at 866 E. Campbell Avenue into an English-style pub.

Two applications have been made by Anderson Construction Co. The first is for a zone change from CM-80 to CM-40 for property at 1501 Dell Avenue and the second is a petition for a text amendment changing side and rear yard requirements.

The council will hear an application by Mission Pest and Termite Control to extend an expired use permit to allow continued business use of a residence at 559 McGlincey Lane.

A pre-zoning of Cherry Woods 1971-4 to R-1 for newly annexed property at 1925 Cronwell Drive will be considered.

CofC drive adds members

Campbell Chamber of Commerce's recent drive to add to their membership roles may mean a record-breaking year, according to Jack Reilly, chairman of the Ambassadors Committee for 1971.

To date, 46 new members have been added to the Chamber, for a total of $2,495. Included are those brought in on the committee's recent one-day membership drive:

Alpha Beta Acme Market, Inc., Campbell Beauty College, Dalziel Supply Co., Fryer's Automotive Center, El Burro Mexican Restaurant, Lee Brown and Associates, Lois Mitchell, attorney, Medallion Painting, McDonald's Hamburgers, Olde California Pizza and the Tiki Ho Restaurant.

Contacts made during the one-day drive will continue, with new members expected during that time.

Board supports wage requests

The special meeting held by the Campbell Union School District Board of Trustees last Wednesday evening resulted in unanimous agreement by the board to write letters to school administrative boards, senators and congressmen supporting the district personnel's request to have their salaries paid according to the district's salary schedule.

The vote was not unanimous, however, that the district provide funds to help pay expenses incurred by the county counsel who recently went to Washington, D.C., on behalf of the school districts in the county. A previous

New equipment eases traffic problems

by Barbara Price

Because the traffic accident is a malady more prevalent in Campbell than the common cold, the city's police department is receiving a grant totaling $66,730 from the state and federal governments.

The traffic safety project of preventive engineering and enforcement hinges on the use of an innovative information retrieval system.

Campbell, the second city in California to purchase the system, has one of the state's largest traffic problems for its 25,000 population, according to Captain Larry Kelly of the Campbell Police Department.

Kelly explains that "Campbell...on the way to everywhere," is centered between San Jose, Saratoga, Los Gatos and Almaden.

A river of cars, trucks and cycles equalling four times the city's population flow daily through its streets. As a result three out of every four speeders stopped in Campbell are not residents of the city.

The new equipment can't lessen traffic flow, but it will help police to pinpoint accident-prone areas, determine the cause, and work to eliminate it. Officers will be placed more effectively and needed road improvements will be identified and initiated.

The Eastman Kodak Microfilm Information Retrieval System was installed in September in a room of the police complex at the new city hall.

The equipment was explained to the project's coordinator, Larry Kelly, and to Donna Perry, policewoman, by a representative from Eastman Kodak.

The system, now being tested on a sample of 20 accident reports, can eventually handle crime reports, mug shots, finger prints and all police records traditionally stored in bulky file cabinets.

First, as Donna Perry demonstrated, data from each police record is assimilated onto microfilm, and photographed by the gangly-looking coding machine.

Hundreds of police records are preserved on a tiny strip of microfilm, solving storage problems.

Once coded, the microfilm cartridges are fed into the video-tabulating machine which has a viewing screen next to a panel with buttons and lighted number-boxes.

The operator may choose to see one accident report at a time, on the video screen, or query the machine for a survey and analysis of variables like weather, age, sobriety, location and time. The computations are flashed onto the number box.

Since the new equipment can identify the number of accident-prone locations, police will station at the crucial intersections.

Also, if the analysis shows many accidents caused by rain or fog, extra officers can be alerted on inclement days.

Data from the police department will be relayed to engineers and road-workers if accident analysis reveals deep chuckholes, blind corners, narrow streets, lack of traffic signs or faulty signals as prime accident causers.

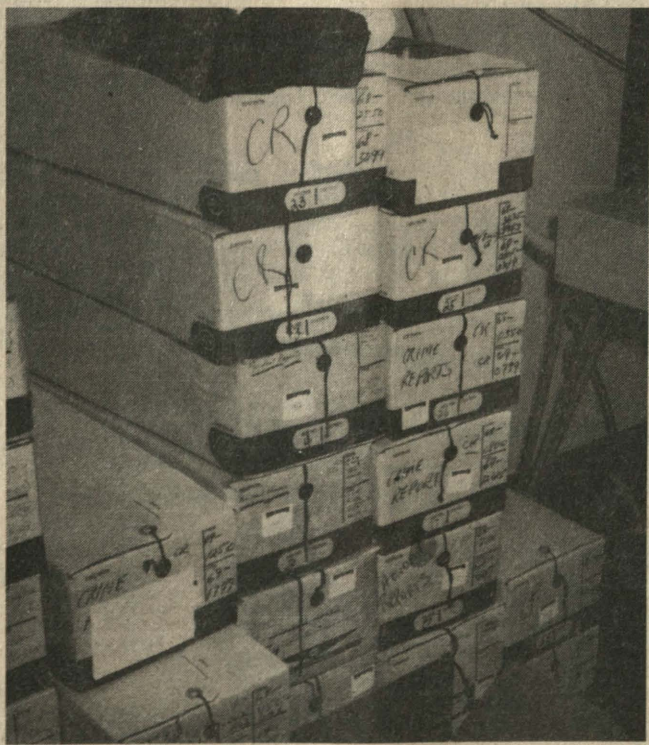

Campbell Police traffic and crime records, now boxed and to turn back the hands of their clocks one hour when daylight saving time officially ends for the summer, at 2 a.m., Sunday, Oct. 31, 1971.

RECORD COMPRESSION--Neatly labeled and stacked next to the coding machine in the Campbell Police Department, these boxes contain hundreds of thousands of crime and accident reports. These records will be compressed by the coding machine onto slender strands of microfilm and stored in no more than two cartridges.

PRACTICAL VIDEO--Police-woman Donna Perry views an accident report on the video screen of the Campbell Police Department's new information retrieval system. By pressing different combinations of the buttons on her right, Donna can whirl through hundreds of records in a few seconds, seek analysis for different variables or select one report for close observation.

READYING THE CAPSULE--George Rodriguez, who made the copper box which will be used as a "time capsule," prepares to take the contents to his office at County Sheet Metal, where he'll complete the process of sealing the capsule.

Time capsule readied for future generations

Friday, Nov. 5 has been tentatively scheduled as the date when a short ceremony will be conducted commemorating the placing of a time capsule beneath the clock tower in front of the Campbell City Hall.

The capsule, which is to be opened in 100 years (or whenever future generations may decide), has been built by George Rodriguez of County Sheet Metal and filled by Mrs. Courtland Watson.

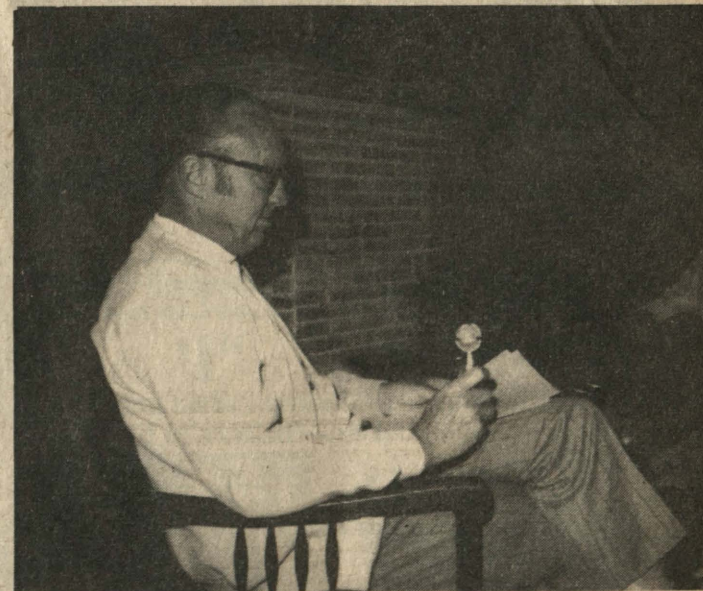

Collection of the contents of the capsule has been going on for several weeks, in order to have as many ideas and items incorporated in it as possible. Measuring 10 1/2" x 10 1/2" by 13 1/2", the copper inner box will be sealed and all oxygen removed and replaced with nitrogen to insure that no moisture will destroy the contents. Tape recordings by local citizens have further been encased in tin to keep them from being demagnetized.

After the copper container is sealed, Rodriguez plans to make a one inch coating of resin between it and a second outer, copper box and seal directions on how to open it right in the resin.

The contents of the box include a shingle from the first city hall (the old Congregational Church), a 1971 copper penny, and one instructional for placement in the "time capsule" which will be placed at the base of the clock tower next week.

RECORDING HISTORY--Homer Hyde, former city councilman, records the history of the City of Campbell

THE CONTENTS--The dining room table in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Courtland Watson is laden with some of the contents which have since been placed in a copper "time capsule" and will be sealed for future generations.

HALLOWEEN

Hallowe'en comes upon us this weekend.

Along with the ghosts and goblins that predominate the decorative background for the parties there are other traditional activities that are a part of Hallowe'en.

For example, "trick-or-treat".

Few neighborhoods will be immune from the onslaught of youngsters, garbed in costumes ranging from the outlandish to the fantastic and everything in-between.

There will be an incessant and continual ringing of doorbells. "Trick-or-treat" will be lisped, chirped, shrilled, yelled and whispered by the little ones as they hold open their bags to collect their loot.

While we admit that this "attack" by the bubble-gum set at Hallowe'en sometimes meets with opposition from householders who feel that the kids are taking advantage of them, the majority of people have more or less resigned themselves to their fate on Hallowe'en and take it in stride.

We concede that the continual ringing of the doorbell throughout the evening and the distributing of tidbits to the tiny callers is a nuisance.

But we recall that our dog used to be the most upset in our house. That one-night clanging of the doorbell used to drive her almost up the walls.

But really even those who maintain that "trick-or-treat" is a silly custom and should be done away with, must concede that it is, in reality, a rather innocent expression. In most cases it is a harmless activity that gives the tiny ones involved their mini-night-on-the-town.

There have been cases, of course, where a householder has allowed his distaste and dislike for this traditional Hallowe'en activity to get the best of him, and he has retaliated.

The retaliation has taken several different forms. We recall that one individual with a perverted sense of humor "loaded" the tidbits he gave away.

But such cases are rare.

In the main most people accept the situation but are thankful it only comes once a year. They stock up on special "trick-or-great" goodies and await the attack.

Most people seem not to mind the idea of the little tykes trotting to the doors, generally under the watchful eyes of an adult who stands unobtrusively in the background.

The little ones are generally cute and polite.

But when the doorbell is rung by some hulking teenager who goes through this trick-or-treat bit, that's another story.

"Trick-or-treat" is a Hallowe'en tradition and all that. And basically there is nothing really wrong with it, although some people may become provoked by it.

But it is an activity that should be limited to the little ones.

That, of course, brings up the point of what should the older youngsters have for an outlet to mark this annual event.

We concede that, over the years, some unique activities have been undertaken on Hallowe'en by groups of young people.

Some of these activities resulted in the destruction of property or worse.

And some, of course, were done with the basic intent to do malicious harm. Hallowe'en was merely the excuse.

We have long felt that if this Hallowe'en oriented spirit could be channeled into constructive activities, everyone would be the gainer.

We recall, for example, that in one community, for years it was traditional that store windows would be marked (and often broken) on Hallowe'en by the young people. The day after Hallowe'en the business section always looked like a mess.

Then one bright businessman invited the young people to use his windows (Prior to Hallowe'en) to present artistic designs typical of Hallowe'en.

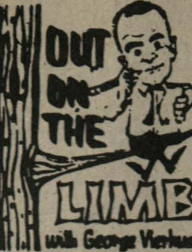

And the idea spread throughout the business district with contests and prizes. Everyone gained in this way.

We firmly believe that our traditional "days" should be celebrated.

And we like the idea of the youngsters becoming involved in a constructive instead of destructive way.

So have a happy Hallowe'en.

general excellence of operation. The Campbell Police Dept. is also a model of efficiency and good community rapport, due greatly to the efforts of Chief John Morgan. (We hurt intensely along with everyone else every time we think of John's plight. He is a special person.)

THE PRUNEYARD... quite an accomplishment... hated to see that orchard go. The surrounding shops are very attractive—but that stark building....

CAMPBELL AVENUE ON a Saturday morning really comes alive. Just west of Moreland School District office, a troop of scouts were gathering trash from the roadside in yellow bags. People can be pretty messy—keep your trash to yourself—don't be a slob. These kids are great.

At Campbell High the students were enjoying a football game, while in another part, they were conducting a Flea Market. Across the street, a pretty young woman was guiding a gaggle of girls to a gathering at the WVC auditorium.

A book sale was going on in front of the Country Woman's Club building—all this brings out the fact that Campbell is a LIVE community with activities in many areas.

-O-

THE SCHOOLS IN CAMPBELL are excellent. Under the leadership of many dedicated people, the quality of programs on all levels has been outstanding. The facilities are very good—none had to be shut down after the recent earthquake scare.

West Valley College is a remarkable example of how the efforts of devoted leadership can accomplish wonders in spite of obstacles. Starting from scratch over a seven-year period, and in spite of bond issue failures, Wally Hall and his associates have created a real marvel. If you have not visited WVC's Saratoga campus, you should do so. The level of instruction is very high, even while the facilities were so limited. Jim Hardy is a capable successor to Dr. Hall.

-O-

IF THE FOREGOING seems like a "sunnyside up" presentation—probably it is. As far as we are concerned, the community could have stopped growing 15 years ago and we would have been happier. BUT—if this growth had to occur, we feel the community has done very well. Do you remember what a fuss was raised over the Limited Industrial development when it first was proposed? Centered around the IBM plant, it has turned out to be an asset of the first level.

-O-

DOGS...ABOUT 1:00 A.M. on a recent night, a siren screamed—and continued wailing. Shortly thereafter, every dog in the neighborhood started baying and barking, as usual. But one resident was fed up with this recurrent cacophony. He got out (or put a tape recorder) in his yard and shouted at the top of his lungs "Shut up your dogs!" over and over for at least 20 minutes. At first we were disturbed, but on second thought, maybe we'll join him next time. If your dog starts howling, shut him up! Keep him off the streets, too—we are tired of being knocked off our bike and chewed on while walking (not just once but many times). Not to mention the use of our lawns as a doggie latrine. It's lousy fertilizer.

MINNIE KNICKELPFENNIG RETURNS...Back when the Press put out a Shopper's Guide, Minnie made a "tour" of Campbell's shops seeking goodies. She waltzed in and out of Rachel's (no more), Golden Rule (still here), Campbell Hardware (dec.), Helen's Juvenile Shop (gone), Towne Pride (still here), etc. with her bulging bags. Her tour this week after many years absence left her completely bewildered. "Du must

Other items, mostly paper, include the City's preliminary operating budget for 1971-72, with the idea that future generations might enjoy comparison of municipal costs; a program of advanced planning, a list of uses classified by the planning commission and a zoning map of the city.

The Campbell Press will be well-represented to the people of 2071, as issues of the papers pertaining to the planning and dedication of the city will be included.

The West Valley Joint Community College has contributed its 1971 booklet, its fall pamphlet, a sample ballot for trustee election and two issues of the school paper, The Norseman.

Elementary school children are represented by two anthologies by seventh and eighth grade students and the high school student and district by a transcript sheet, recruitment brochure, salary schedule, an open letter to the future by Dr. Nick Montesano, superintendent; a paper on system for involvement and interaction and a copy of "School Trends."

Because the dedication of the city hall was so closely linked with the Clock Tower, a dedication program, a formal invitation, two ribbons, copies of two speeches, a picture, a business card and a letter to a preview meeting have been preserved.

The letters and pictures of President Nixon and Governor Reagan, sent in response to an invitation to the dedication of the city hall, in their original envelopes, have been placed in the capsule.

Chamber of Commerce information map, a business license revision, an industrial map and agenda and minutes of a chamber meeting along with an industrial property survey, a copy of a Chambergram (the Chamber's newsletter), a budget, and a Congress for Community Progress program for 1971, as well as the Chamber's program for their installation dance and a picture are part of the many items of interest which have been included.

A booklet from a service club, a senior citizens folder and photo of the senior's van, three promotional folders from Campbell firms, and industrial photos from Campbell firms, restaurant menus, colored photos of the city taken from the Towers, eleven pictures of the old and new city hall, inside and out; and a beautification folder, which includes pictures of homes in Campbell; landscaping of the San Tomas Expressway and the fire station are in the capsule.

There are also photos of city employees at work, including police, fire and public works, modern greeting cards and a sheet of "Snoopy" stickers. A sheet music of a song, a video tape of the actual city hall dedication, three audio tapes of interviews with Campbell residents, electronic circuit boards, photos of Campbell families and a Parks and Recreation Directory have been added.

Campbell showed its great spirit at the rally Friday, Oct. 22 in the boys gym. Master of ceremonies Pete Hovland started out by introducing four faculty members to represent each class. Pat Brimmer (fresh.), Lou Marotti (soph.), Chuck Edmonds (juniors) and Wayne Metcalf (seniors) all donned cheerleader sweaters to lead their class in competition, which the sophomores won.

The flag girls, headed by Debbie Wright, performed a routine to the theme from Mod Squad. The Pirettes, led by Sandy Ellis, also performed. The rally ended with the singing of the school hymn.

The D basketball team traveled to Camden Oct. 21, where they won with a score of 45-30. The high point men were Jess Villanueva with 12 points and 12 rebounds, Jim Ebaugh with 10 points and 13 rebounds and Steve Wood with 8 points and 10 rebounds. DARTING AROUND with Tom Carroll

Things are still tight in the two leagues of the Northern California Darts Assn. that cover Campbell area teams. Only two games separate the first four teams in the El Camino league "A" level. The first three teams of the "B" level are also within two games of each other.

Campbell's Black Knight is one game behind Andy Capp's of Sunnyvale and Prince of Wales I of San Mateo, both tied for first place. Two games out of first and in third place is Black Watch I of Los Gatos.

In the "B" level Black Watch II and San Jose's Banbury Clock II are two games behind Los Gatos' Lancashire Lad III.

In the South Bay League "B" level the Rerun's (Gaslighter Theater II) are tied for second with the Lancashire Lad II, one game behind the leading Primrose Lanes II of Burlingame.

The "A" level has the widest division with Los Gatos' Scarlet La Rue's I, three games ahead of Lancashire Lad I. Third place in this league is Harold's of Redwood six games out.

The best average is the Scarlet La Rue's who have won 25 of their 36 games. This gives the La Rue's a .694 average.

WEEK'S SCORES

Four of the El Camino "A" teams played to 6-6 splits. Prince of Wales I at the Black Knight and Andy Capp's at the Black Watch I. The Watch-Capp's match saw some high scores. Les Quinn of the Black Watch shot a 120-away while teammate Dave Hughey popped a 120 and a ton.

For the Capp's, Cash Campbell hit a 117 and a 124 and Dave High laid in two tons (100's).

The inter-league game saw Scarlet La Rue's II defeated 9-3 by Harold's of Redwood.

Other "A" level play saw Scarlet La Rue's I defeat Banbury Clock I 10-2. The Clock's Paul Schultz hit a 127 which was countered by the La Rue's Phil Albers' 125. Primrose Lanes I Captain Tom Patton shot a 140 and a 125 backed by Larry Trinta's 135 but still lost to Lancashire Lad I, 7-5. Des Banks popped a 140 and a 103 with Tom Walker hitting a 140 away and a 121 for the Lads.

Both of the Gaslighter Theater teams won their matches. Gaslighter II with their third win in as many weeks, 7-5 over the Prince of Wales II. Gaslighter III had their first win of the season at the expense of Black Watch II, 8-4.

10-2 was the score in which both the Lancashire Lad II and the Primrose Lanes II rolled over their opponents.

After winning 9-3 in the first week of play the Lancashire Lad IV girl's team has lost their last two matches. This time to Lad III. Club Gato and Banbury Clock II played to a 6-6 split.

Sirens go off on Friday

On Friday, October 29 at 11 a.m. Santa Clara County's Office of Emergency Services will test their siren and air horns. The quarterly test of emergency equipment will be a one-minute alert signal followed by a one-minute silence, then a one-minute attack warning signal. A steady tone on siren or horn, the alert signal will be used in any emergency to get public attention and will be accompanied by information on radio and television stations. The attack warning signal is a rising and falling note on a siren or a series of short blasts with a horn, which, except for testing can be sounded only by permission of the National Warning System. In a real emergency the signals would be held for three to five minutes.

WALLACE D. PERRY

Perry is drive chairman

Wallace D. Perry, whose son was "theme boy" for the Santa Clara County March of Dimes in 1968, has been appointed Campbell community chairman for the 1972 drive for funds to support the battle against birth defects.

His son, Craig, now 8 years old, was born with meningo-myelocoele (open spine) and within a few weeks of his birth developed hydrocephalus. He has undergone a series of surgical procedures, and with the help of braces, gets around well enough to attend school.

For several years he wore a plastic tube to drain fluid from his head down into his heart cavity, but that has been removed.

The March of Dimes is the financial arm of the national foundation of national voluntary health agency working in the field of birth defects. Major objective of the agency is to discover, through research, causes of the many types of defects which strike a quarter million babies each year in the United States, and then to develop preventive measures.

Volunteers who would like to contact Perry can reach him at Rainbow Nursery School or may call MofD headquarters, 292-3122.

School offers outline for nursery needs

"The individual day-time baby-sitter for children of working mothers is rapidly being replaced by up-to-date highly trained nursery school teachers," stated Wallace D. Perry, administrator for the new Rainbow Nursery School.

The nursery school will hold an open house for parents and children this Saturday, October 30 from 1 to 5 p.m. in the new facilities at 1190 W. Latimer Ave.

All children and parents are invited, and Ho Ho The Clown will be present to welcome and entertain the children during the open house. There will also be a special free drawing for those attending.

Director of the State licensed school is Mrs. Bettie Long of Mt. View, with over 20 years in nursery school education and experience, who says, "The school keeps parents informed of the child's activities and development."

The new, 74 child capacity facility, is a one-story brick building which fulfills safety and fire code requirements and is completely fenced.

There is a separate playground for small tots and three outdoor playareas which were designed with the safety of the children in mind.

All instruction is given at the Rainbow Nursery School by certified teachers in music, art, reading readiness and number concepts.

While most of the students will be pre-school ages 2 to 6, the school also offers day care for older children before and after school hours.

Morning and afternoon snacks and hot lunches are served in the full and half-day programs.

The school's location on W. Latimer is between San Tomas Expressway and Westgate Shopping Center. More information about the school can be obtained by phoning 374-4442.

Safety rules for Hallowe'en

Each year many children are injured and killed Hallowe'en night by motorists unable to see them as they dart unexpectedly into the street.

Other kids are badly burned as their costumes, made of light, highly flammable material, catch fire from lanterns or lighted candles.

Make sure that your child's annual Hallowe'en pilgrimage remains a real treat, instead of a painful tragedy, by following these simple rules, suggested by Liberty Mutual Insurance Company.

1. Wear bright costumes, with a fluorescent strip.
2. Carry a flashlight.
3. Do not carry lighted candles or lanterns.
4. Chaperone young children.
5. Throw away any unwrapped food or candy that the kids bring home.
6. Turn on the porch lights, so kids won't trip or stumble.
7. Find out where each child is going, and when he'll return.

quartet will strike their chords at "Songs American Style," the annual Barber-shoppers' show on Saturday, Nov. 6, 8 p.m. at the San Jose Civic Auditorium. Proceeds from the concert go to the Institute of Logopedics, which helps children and adults with a speech handicap. Riedel is a Campbell resident.

Warrior Wrap-Up

by Denise Bern

In spite of the Warriors' crushing defeat at the hands of the Prospect Panthers Friday, Oct. 16, Westmont students remain in high spirits.

A good indication of this spirit is shown by the Westmont Marching Band. The Warrior Band, which numbers 150, and is the largest in the district, has been spotted marching on occasions without their newly acquired uniforms. In accordance to the sky-high Westmont spirit, was the highly successful slave auction. During the auction, noted Westmont instructor Mr. Glenn Massengale was sold for the top bid of $15.

The Mexican Dinner held in the Westmont's auditorium Friday night, Oct. 15, was a smashing success. Over 1,200 people attended and were well fed and entertained.

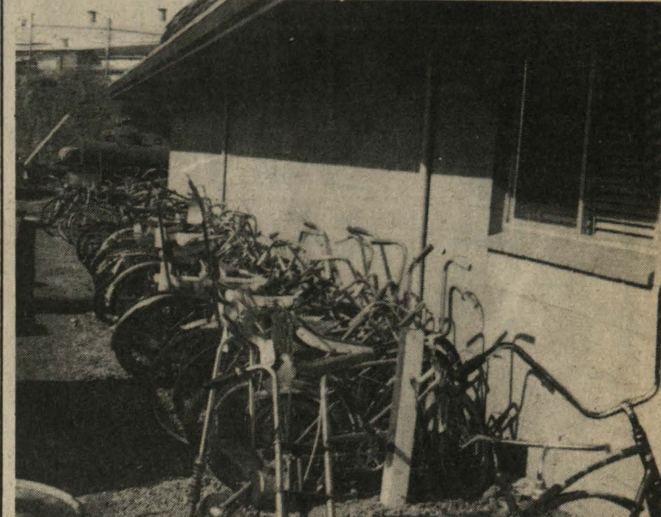

Friday, Oct. 29, W.S.O. (Westmont Student Organization) will sponsor a Hallowe'en Dance which will be full of surprises. Entertainment to dance to will be provided by "The Session."

"Back to School Night" is on the agenda for November 10. Westmont administrators expect the turnout to be the best in the history of the program.

READY FOR A PARTY!—These aren't children in Hallowe'en costumes, but adults who are inviting guests to attend the "Orange Pumpkin Ball" on Saturday, Oct. 30, from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. at St. Lucy's Parish Hall, 2350 Winchester Blvd. The ball is open to the public, costumed or casual, and tickets may be purchased at the door. Chairman is Mrs. John McKay, a close relative of the figure on the left; co-chairman is Mrs. Eddy Garcia, center holding a pumpkin costume, and also on the Committee is Mrs. Jane Lucitt, right. Other committee members are Mrs. Jerome Beck, Mrs. Tony Meduri, Mrs. Dale Narragon, Mrs. Chuck Brown and Mr. and Mrs. Sal Tripoli.

POLICE AUCTION—Bicycles by the dozens will be up for bids at the Campbell police auction on Saturday, Oct. 30 at the city's corporation yard, near the end of Dillon Ave. Also for sale is a weight-reducing machine, an IBM typewriter and a bowling ball and bag.
